Subject : Diwali Greetings

Sir/Madam,

I would like to share a few thoughts on the exchange of greetings and gifts, which is a common Tradition on such occasions. While I appreciate and respect this gesture as a way of expressing warmth and goodwill, I would like to underline that the true spirit of such celebrations lies not in exchanging gifts, but in the cordiality of relationships, the goodwill we share, and the values we uphold. A kind word, a thoughtful gesture, or a heartfelt message can often mean much more than a material gift.

I firmly believe that any such practice that places an unnecessary burden on school resources should be avoided to the best extent possible . All concerned are, therefore, advised to exercise due care and discretion in this matter, ensuring that the true spirit of the occasion is upheld while maintaining integrity and accountability.

May the Festival of Lights illuminate the lives of our principals, staff and students, and all our valued stakeholders and their families with prosperity, peace, joy and happiness.

Assuring you of my fullest cooperation and support at all times.

Dr. Nisha Peshin
Director (P.S.)
